LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY.

PRIVATE BILLS.

EXCERPT FROM STANDING ORDERS RELATING TO PRIVATE BILLS.

100. (1.) All applications to the Legislative Assembly for Private Bills of any nature whatsoever shall require the publication of a notice clearly and distinctly specifying the nature and object of the application, and when the application refers to any proposed work, indicating sufficiently the location of the work, to be signed by or on behalf of the applicant.

(2.) Such notice shall be published in The British Columbia Gazette and once a week in one leading daily newspaper freely circulating in all parts of the Province. The notice in such newspaper to appear on Wednesday of each week.

(3.) When the proposed Bill is of such a nature that it may particularly affect one or more electoral districts, the notice shall furthermore be published once a week if possible in some newspaper in every electoral district affected, or if there be no newspaper published therein, then in a newspaper published in the electoral district nearest thereto.

(4.) The publication of such notice shall in all cases be continued for a period of four weeks during the interval of time between the close of the next preceding Session and the consideration of the petition.

97. No petition for any Private Bill shall be received by the House after the first ten days of each Session, nor may any Private Bill be presented to the House after the first three weeks of each Session, nor may any report of any Standing or Select Committee upon a Private Bill be received after the first four weeks of each Session, and no motion for the suspension or modification of this Standing Order shall be entertained by the House until the same has been reported on by the Committee on Standing Orders, or after reference made thereof at a previous sitting of the House to the Standing Committees charged with the consideration of Private Bills, who shall report thereon to the House. And if this rule shall be suspended or modified as aforesaid, the promoters of any Private Bill which is presented after the time hereinbefore limited, or for which the petition has been received after the time hereinbefore limited, shall in either case pay double the fees required in respect of such Bill by this rule, unless the House shall order to the contrary.

98. (1.) Any person seeking to obtain any Private Bill shall deposit with the Clerk of the House, eight clear days before the opening of the Session:—

- (a.) A printed copy of such Bill;
- (b.) A copy of the petition to be presented to the House;
- (c.) Copies of the notices published, with publication proved by a statutory declaration or affidavit to the satisfaction of the Clerk of the House.

(2.) At the time of depositing the Bill and petition the applicant shall also pay to the Clerk of the House the sum of three hundred dollars.

(3.) If a copy of the Bill, petition, and notices proved as aforesaid shall not have been so deposited in the hands of the Clerk of the House at least eight clear days before the opening of the Session or if the petition has not been presented to the House within the first ten days of the Session, the amount to be paid to the Clerk shall be six hundred dollars. If the Bill shall not pass second reading one-half of the fees shall be returned.

101. Every petition signed by an agent or attorney in fact shall be accompanied by the authority of such agent or attorney in fact, and the petition shall not be deemed to be filed with the Clerk until this is done.

102. Before any petition praying for leave to bring in a Private Bill for the erection of a toll-bridge is received by the House, the person or persons intending to petition for such Bill shall, upon giving the notice prescribed by Standing Order 100, also at the same time and in the same manner give notice of the rates which they intend to ask, the extent of the privilege, the height of the arches, the interval between the abutments or piers for the passage of rafts or vessels, and mentioning also whether they intend to erect a drawbridge or not, and the dimensions of the same.

103. (1.) All Private Bills for Acts of incorporation shall be so framed as to incorporate by reference to the clauses of the general Acts relating to the details to be provided for by such Bills: Special grounds shall be established for any proposed departure from this principle, or for the introduction of other provisions as to such details, and a note shall be appended to the Bill indicating the provisions thereof in which the general Act is proposed to be departed from. Bills which are not framed in accordance with this Standing Order shall be recast by the promoters and reprinted at their expense before any Committee passes upon the clauses.

(2.) Every Bill for an Act of incorporation, where a form of model Bill has been adopted, shall be drawn in accordance with the model Bill (copies of model Bills may be obtained from the Clerk of the House). Any provisions contained in any such Bill which are not in accord with the model Bill shall be inserted between brackets or underlined, and shall be so printed.

(3.) Any exceptional provisions that it may be proposed to insert in any Bill shall be clearly specified in the notice of application for same.

107. All Private Bills shall be prepared by the parties applying for the same, and printed in small-pica type, twenty-six ems by fifty ems, on good paper, in imperial octavo form, each page when folded measuring 10¾ inches by 7½ inches. There shall be a marginal number every fifth line of each page; the numbering of the lines is not to run on through the Bill, but the lines of each page are to be numbered separately. Three hundred copies of each Bill shall be deposited with the Clerk of the House immediately before the first reading. If amendments are made to any Bill during its progress before the Committee on Private Bills, or through the House, such Bill shall be reprinted by the promoters thereof.

In the case of Bills to incorporate companies, in addition to the fee of $300 mentioned in Rule 98, fees calculated on the capital of the company are payable at the same time. Further particulars can be had on application to the undersigned.

All cheques in payment of fees must be certified.

Dated May 1st, 1930.

I HEREBY CERTIFY that "The British Israel Association of Western Canada" has this day been incorporated as a Society under the "Societies Act."

The locality in which the operations of the Society will be chiefly carried on is in the Province of British Columbia.

Given under my hand and seal of office at Victoria, Province of British Columbia, this second day of April, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-six.

[L.S.] H. G. GARRETT,
Registrar of Companies.

The objects of the Society are:—

(a.) To pledge loyalty of the members of this Association: To Jesus Christ, the Incarnate Word, the Saviour of Men, the Redeemer of Israel, the King of Kings, the Lord of Lords, and the only Ruler of Princes; to the Bible, as the ever-living written Word of God; to the Throne of the House of David, now officially established at St. James's or St. Jacob's, the capital of the British Commonwealth of Nations:

(b.) To teach and publish: That the Great Charter underlying the Throne and organization of the British Commonwealth of Nations consists of the Brith or Covenant entered into between El Shaddai (God Almighty) and Abraham and Sarah, and confirmed to Isaac and Jacob, to the House of Israel, and in certain particulars to the House of David. That the Brith or Covenant entered into primarily with Abraham the Brith-Ish (which being interpreted into English means the Covenant-Man) includes as later developed: The title to immense territories of land as an everlasting heritage; the organization and everlasting perpetuation of national life founded upon a secured civilization; immunity from destruction by enemies; the Brith-Anniah, or Covenant of the Deep or Rule of the Sea; the ordinances of Worship and Salvation; a national constitution not only immeasurably superior to any other code of laws, but absolutely perfect for such a world as this, and capable of universal application; the Virgin Birth and Redemptive Sacrifice of the Lord; the establishment of the Throne of David for ever; the return and reign of the King of Kings; the final triumph of God's purpose in Israel on this earth. That by principles of the Constitution given under the Brith or Covenant, human history has been directed and controlled to this day; and the divergence from it on the part of men and governments has been the direct cause of the confusion and suffering among the nations:

(c.) To acquire land and build, maintain, and operate buildings, plant, machinery, and equipment for the purpose of the Association, including halls, libraries, and residences and such other buildings as may be required for carrying out the purposes of the Association:

(d.) To establish, maintain, and operate printing-presses, and to print books, tracts, and other literature (newspapers) and such, and to build, establish, operate, and maintain contracts for and employ radio-stations, television, cinematograph, or any other form of publicity, propaganda, or any other method of proclaiming the teachings of this Association, and generally to carry on the business of printers, publishers, stationers, bookbinders, or any branch of such business:

(c.) To borrow money for the purposes of the Association, and to mortgage or pledge the property of the Association, both real and personal, as the Association shall see fit, and in respect thereof to grant and execute promissory notes, contracts, or other writing to secure payment of any money so borrowed as the Association shall see fit, subject in every case to the laws of the Province of British Columbia applying thereto:

(f.) To enter into affiliation with and to co-operate with any corporation, association, or society having objects similar to the objects of this Association, which it may desire to support or with which it may desire to affiliate or co-operate:

(g.) To adopt by-laws or regulations governing the admission of members and (or) branches into the Association, the termination of membership, the election of officers, the holding of meetings, and any other matters necessary for the conduct and pursuit of the objects and business of the association:

(h.) To promote the unity of all the British Israel associations, societies, branches, classes, and members in Canada, as nearly as possible upon a basis of voluntary organization and operation. The operations of the Society are to be chiefly carried on in the City of Vancouver, in the Province of British Columbia, but the Association may extend its operations as provided in paragraph (i) hereof:

(i.) To promote the objects and to carry on the work of this Association in the Province of British Columbia and in any of the Provinces of the Dominion or in any countries of the world, subject to the laws of each Province or countries to which the operation of this Association shall extend.

NOTICE is hereby given that "Western Housing Association, Limited," was incorporated under the "Companies Act" on the 22nd day of February, 1936.

The authorized capital of the Company is one hundred thousand dollars, divided into one thousand common shares of ten dollars each, and nine thousand preferred Class "A" shares of ten dollars each.

The address of its registered office is 308 Randall Building, 535 Georgia Street West, Vancouver, B.C.

The objects for which the Company is established are:—

(a.) To engage in, carry out, or supervise any housing scheme, plan, or proposal for the building of houses, apartments, or housing accommodation, including slum clearance:

(b.) To purchase, take on lease or in exchange, or otherwise acquire any lands and buildings, and any estate or interest in and any rights connected with any such lands and buildings:

(c.) To develop and turn to account any land acquired by or in which the Company is interested, and in particular by laying out and preparing the same for building purposes, constructing, altering, pulling down, decorating, maintaining, furnishing, fitting up, and improving buildings, and by planting, paving, draining, farming, cultivating, letting on building lease or building agreement, and by advancing money to and entering into contracts and arrangements of all kinds with builders, tenants, and others:

(d.) To construct, maintain, improve, develop, work, control, and manage any water-works, gasworks, reservoirs, roads, electric power, heat, and light supply works, telephone-works, hotels, clubs, restaurants, baths, places of worship, places of amusement, pleasure-grounds, parks, gardens, reading-rooms, stores, shops, dairies, and other works and conveniences which the Company may think, directly or indirectly, conducive to these objects, and to contribute or otherwise assist or take part in the construction, maintenance, development, working, control, and management thereof:

(e.) To carry on all or any of the following businesses, namely: Builders and contractors, decorators, merchants, and dealers in stone, sand, lime, bricks, timber, hardware, and other building requisites, brick, and tile, and terracotta makers, jobmasters, carriers, licensed victuallers, and house agents:

(f.) To lend money, either with or without security, and generally to such persons and upon such terms and conditions as the Company may think fit, and in particular to persons undertaking to build on or improve any property in which the Company is interested, and to tenants, builders, and contractors:

(g.) To purchase for investment or resale and to traffic in land and house and other property of any tenure and any interest therein, and to create, sell, and deal in freehold and leasehold ground-rents, and to make advances upon the security of land or house or other property or any interest therein, and generally to deal in, traffic by way of sale, lease, exchange, or otherwise with land and house property and any other property, whether real or personal:

(h.) To acquire by purchase, lease, exchange, or otherwise land, buildings, and hereditaments of any tenure or description, and any estate or interest therein, and any rights over or connected with land so situate, and to turn the same to account as may seem expedient, and in particular by preparing buildings, building-sites, and by constructing, reconstructing, altering, improving, decorating, furnishing, and maintaining offices, flats, houses, factories, warehouses, shops, wharves, buildings, works, and conveniences of all kinds, and by consolidating or connecting or subdividing properties, and by leasing and disposing of the same:

(i.) To manage land, buildings, and other property situate as aforesaid, whether belonging to the Company or not, and to collect rents and income, and to supply to tenants and occupiers, and others, refreshments, attendance, messengers, light, waiting-rooms, reading-rooms, meeting-rooms, lavatories, laundry conveniences, electric conveniences, stables, and other advantages:

(j.) To purchase or acquire property of any and every kind whatsoever, and to pay for the same by the issuance and delivery to the seller of shares, bonds, debentures, or debenture stock of the Company, and for such purposes to issue shares, debentures, or debenture stock:

(k.) To carry on any business as brokers, financiers, and as agents for guarantors, securities and loan companies, fire, life, accident, and marine insurance companies, and agents for any other branch of the insurance business (subject to the laws and regulations in force in the Province of British Columbia respecting insurance), and to undertake, carry on, and execute all kinds of financial operations, and to carry on the business of agents or attorneys for any person, firm, or corporations engaged in any branch of financial, industrial, or commercial business, upon such terms as to remuneration as may be agreed; provided any such powers do not conflict with the "Bank Act," or the "Trust Companies Act" or "Insurance Act" of British Columbia:

(l.) To carry on a general construction business, including the business of architects and engineers in all their branches, subject to the provisions and conditions of the "Architects Act," R.S.B.C. 1924, and amending Acts, and subject to the "Engineering Act," R.S.B.C. 1924, and amending Acts:

(m.) To erect and construct houses, buildings, or works of every description on any land of the Company or upon any other lands or hereditaments, and to pull down, rebuild, enlarge, alter, and improve existing houses, buildings, or works thereon; to convert and appropriate any such land into and for roads, streets, squares, gardens and pleasure-grounds, and other conveniences, and generally to deal with and improve the property of the Company:

(n.) To sell, lease, let, mortgage, or otherwise dispose of the lands, houses, buildings, and hereditaments as principals or agents.

(g.) To carry on the business of general commission agents, merchandise brokerage, selling agent's and factor's business in goods, wares, and merchandise of all kinds, traders, warehousemen, packers, distributors, and forwarding agents and manufacturers' agents:

(h.) To carry on a general mercantile business as exporters, importers, and dealers in all kinds of goods, wares, and merchandise, whether wholesale or retail, and by means of stores, warehouses, shops, or agencies in all such places as the Company may deem to be profitable and advantageous:

(i.) To procure, own, lease, and operate mills and manufacturing establishments for the production of merchantable commodities and products of every kind and description, not prohibited by law or subject to special licence or other restriction, and in respect of any such articles so restricted to procure, use, and dispose of such licence, permit, franchise, or other authority for so doing, and by means of any good and lawful contract and for any kind of consideration:

(j.) To carry on the business of shipping, either as principal or agent, or common carrier or otherwise, in any of the products dealt with by the Company, and to operate such shipping facilities either on land, air, or water, as may be expedient for the purposes of the Company:

(k.) To acquire, purchase, sell, underwrite, deal in, hold, transfer, make loans upon, exchange, mortgage, assign, hypothecate, and pledge, either absolutely as owner or agent, by way of collateral security, and at a discount or otherwise, trade acceptances, warehouse receipts, promissory notes, bills of lading, conditional-sales agreements, contracts, accounts receivable, choses in action, liens, mortgages on real or personal property, and all kinds of commercial paper and evidences of indebtedness, and to borrow from banks, individuals, firms, or corporations such moneys as may be necessary to successfully carry on the business of the Company:

(l.) To allot, credited as fully or partly paid up, any of the shares of the Company as the whole or part of the purchase price of any property, both real and personal, acquired by the Company, or for services rendered or other valuable consideration:

(m.) And it is hereby declared and the intention is that the interpretation or exercise of any of the objects or powers specified in this memorandum of association and section 22 of the "Companies Act," enacted by the Legislature of the Province of British Columbia in 1929, shall, except where otherwise expressed, be in nowise limited or restricted by reference to or inference from the other objects or powers therein specified.

(c.) To aid by loan, subsidy, guarantee, or in any other manner whatsoever any customer, association or associations, corporation or corporations, whose stock, bonds, or other obligations are held or are in any manner guaranteed by the Company; and to do any other acts or things for the preservation, protection, improvement, or enhancement of the value of any such stock, bonds, or other obligations, or to do any acts or things designed to accomplish any such purpose, and while the owner of such stock, bonds, or other obligations to exercise all the rights, powers, and privileges of ownership thereof, including the right to vote thereon:

(d.) To distribute any of the property of the Company in specie or kind among the members:

(e.) To obtain any Act of Parliament or of the Legislature or any Order in Council, certificate, licence, approval, or consent of the Lieutenant-Governor, in or out of Council, enabling this Company to pursue more efficiently any of its objects, or for effecting any modification of the Company's constitution, or for any other purpose which may seem expedient; and to oppose any proceedings or applications which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to prejudice the interests of this Company:

(f.) To apply for and obtain an Act of Parliament or of the Legislature dissolving the Company and reincorporating its members as a new company for all or any of the objects specified in this memorandum, and for effecting any modifications of the constitution of the Company, or for any other purpose which may seem expedient:

(g.) To increase the capital of the Company from time to time in such manner as may be allowed by law, and to issue the shares to be created for that purpose, and also any portion of the shares forming part of the present capital of the Company, upon such terms, and either with or without special privileges or preferences to the holders of the shares so to be issued, as the Company may from time to time deem expedient:

(h.) To borrow or raise or secure the payment of money in such manner as the Company shall think fit, and in particular by the issue of debentures or debenture stock, perpetual or otherwise, charged upon all or any of the Company's property (both present and future), including its uncalled capital, and to purchase, redeem, or pay off any such securities:

(i.) To appoint from time to time, either with full or restricted powers of sub-delegation, and either with or without remuneration, agents, attorneys, local or managing directors, or other persons or corporations, under power of attorney or otherwise, within or without British Columbia, for the purpose of carrying out and completing all or any of the objects of the Company as mentioned in this memorandum of association, and of arranging, conducting, or managing the business or businesses of the Company, or any matter or concern whatsoever in which the Company is now or may, from time to time, be or become or be about to become interested or concerned with the same or more limited powers than the directors of the Company have; and to delegate such powers of appointment to any person or persons, company or corporation, and from time to time to revoke and cancel all or any such appointment or delegations, and to remove any person or corporation appointed thereunder:

(j.) To amalgamate with any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company:

(k.) To carry on any other business (whether manufacturing or otherwise) which may seem to the Company capable of being conveniently carried on in connection with its business, or calculated, directly or indirectly, to enhance the value of or render profitable any of the Company's properties or rights:

(l.) To issue in payment or part payment for any business, property, rights, or privileges acquired by the Company, with or without assumption of liabilities, or for any shares, stock, bonds, debentures, evidences of indebtedness, or other securities of any other company acquired by the Company, fully paid-up or non-assessable shares or bonds or debentures or other securities of the Company:

(m.) To do all such things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects or any of them; and the intention is that the objects specified in each of the paragraphs in this clause shall, unless otherwise therein provided, be regarded as independent objects, and shall be in nowise limited or restricted by reference to or inference from the terms of any other paragraph or the name of the Company.
